"FLAMES"—AT TORRANCE

Scene from the Monogram Production "FLAMES"

Thrills and perils predominate in the sensational fire epic, "Flames," which comes to the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday, August 28 and 29. The picture, a skillful handling of comedy, romance, thrills, suspense and pathos, shows the everyday life of the brave fire-fighters of a great city. Hobart Bosworth carries the leading role. Paired with "Flames" in the double feature bill is "Million Dollar Legs" with Jack Oakie.

"Young America" Is Boyhood's Love For Adventure and Fun

They called him "the worst boy in town"—but he only loved adventure and wanted fun. Vivid with the sympathetic realism that marks all of Frank Borzage's pictures, here is a notable drama of youth at the crossroads. It comes to the Torrance Theatre Friday and Saturday this week in "Young America."

Of absorbing interest to every adult, both for its human entertainment qualities and for its significance, this offering is one that the management takes sincere pleasure in offering to its patrons. Here for the first time is given the inside throbs of our juvenile court. Here the joys and heartaches of boyhood are deftly woven into a talking picture that well merits the adjective, "splendid." With such screen favorites as Spencer Tracy, Doris Kenyon, Beryl Mercer, Ralph Bellamy and the new juvenile sensation, Tommy Conlon, in feature roles, "Young America" will prove well worth your while.

On the same bill with this picture, the new management of the Torrance Theatre has booked "Revue of Song and Dance on the Stage," featuring the stars of "Lucky Day."

Song and Dance Revue, Preview and Accordionist Among Stage Attractions at Torrance Show

If the throngs which witnessed the first week's performances at the Torrance Theatre under the new management have been pleased with the better type of entertainment offered, patrons of the local show house will be more than delighted with the stellar program which has been arranged for the coming week.

In the words of the Southern gentleman, "Ya ain't seen nuthin' yet!"

"Lucky Day" Stars
Starting off on Friday and Saturday of this week, Manager Sam Klein has booked the stars of the popular road show, "Lucky Day," who will appear on the stage in a miniature production of the big stage hit. Among those present will be Alma Travis, celebrated blues singer, and an entire jazz band. There will also be lively dancers who will entertain with a group of snappy dance numbers on the newly remodeled stage. Manager Klein promises thirty minutes of rhythm and jazz in the lively song and dance revue. The feature picture Friday and Saturday will be Spencer Tracy and Doris Kenyon in "Young America," a drama of modern youth of exceptional merit.

Mints to Munch
Bargain matinees will be held Saturday and Sunday, with all seats selling at 15 cents. Ladies attending the Saturday matinee will be given delicious chocolate mints to eat during the performance.

Accordionist Coming
On Sunday and Monday, "Kiordi," said to be the world's greatest jazz accordionist, will entertain from the stage, supplemented by two big first run features: Jack Oakie in "Million Dollar Legs" and Hobart Bosworth in "Flames."

Gifts Wednesday
Beautiful and useful gifts await the ladies on Wednesday night at the Torrance Theatre, or at least some of the ladies, as will be explained later. The picture for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, next week, is "Lady and Gent," starring George Bancroft and Wynne Gibson.

Preview Next Thursday
Next Thursday, September 1, Torrance Theatre patrons will be treated with a studio feature preview, when local theatre goers will have an advance showing of a new feature picture before it is placed on the regular bookings. This preview picture will be shown in addition to the regular program, at no advance in prices. There will be lights, flares and cameras. Don't miss it, next Thursday, September 1.

TO DRY OR NOT TO DRY?

LADY AND GENT
How many local husbands wash dishes for their wives? Yes, sir, it's being done, as you can see by this scene from Paramount's picture, "Lady and Gent," in which George Bancroft gives the plates a rub-down. Wynne Gibson is the misus. "Lady and Gent" comes to the Torrance Theatre next week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 30, 31 and September 1.
